Writing Exercise

1. Classwork: Hook-on story. The teacher makes up a sentence such "Once there was a robber who had a pet mouse." Going around the room, each student must contribute the next sentence of the story, while a teacher writes it down. The last child must make an ending to the story. Then the teacher assigns 1 sentence to each child to write (not his own contribution). Using the dictionary, he must get all the words spelled right.

2. Make up a story with the following characters:

Mike – a bandit

Dan – a fisherman

Donna – a nice girl

Lola – a hateful girl

Jim – Donna's brother

3. Make up a story about Bill. In paragraph 1, he has a problem or a trouble. In paragraph 2, he tells his problem to someone. In paragraph 3, this person helps him solve his problem.
